Mr. James E. MacLaue
Custodian U.S.M.

Dear Sir:

Mr. Alexander D'Autrechy has handed me your note to him of yesterday to answer and will say he is still under my case suffering from muscular rheumatism contracted while at work in the Mint, by becoming overheated, perspiring freely, then standing in a draft, and becoming chilled. He has been under my care since the 12th of the present month, I now hope to have him about again in the course of a few days.

Very Respectfully Yours,
G. Frederick Stevenson, M.D.
